7. The FENTON FOUNDRY SUPPLY COMPANY, (INC.) is an industrial wholesale activity selling materials to the metal casting industry in the same form and container in which the materials were received. No hazardous waste is generated by normal operations. If there were to be any accidental spillage of a hazardous material, Company policies prohibit disposal in any unauthorized manner. This reporter cannot recall any incident involving a hazardous waste disposal for the subject period.

Any waste carried off by IWD on 2/19/75, 2/26/75 or 3/6/75 would have consisted of spillage of clean, unused sand, clay, or torn paper bags and broken pallets along with normal office paper waste. If this Company had received several rail car shipments that were damaged during this period, the railroad companies would have cleared us to dispose of torn bags of unused sand and clay, after inspection by the railroad.

c. each hopper was 10 cubic yards and the total for all (3) three transactions would not have exceeded 30 cubic yards.
